A.

Any person or business entity who commits or permits any acts in violation of a provision of this chapter or other applicable provision of the state code shall be deemed to have committed an offense and shall upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine or penalty of not less than $250 and not more than $5,000 for a conviction of a first offense; upon the conviction of a second offense, where the offense occurred within two years of the commission of the first offense, a fine or penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $10,000; and a conviction of a third or subsequent offense, where the offense occurred within five years of the commission of the first offense, shall be deemed a misdemeanor punishable by a fine or penalty of not less than $1,500 and not more than $15,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day or part thereof such violation continues or is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense punishable in like manner. Written notice of a violation is not a prerequisite for the imposition of such fine, penalty and/or punishment unless the subject of the prosecution is the noncompliance with such notice.

B.

Violation of §§ 69-4(A), 69-4(G), 69-7(B), or 69-7(D). Notwithstanding the provisions of § 69-15(A), any person or business entity who is the owner or is in charge of property where a violation of §§ 69-4(A), 69-4(G), 69-7(B), or 69-7(D) has been committed or exists, or who commits an offense against the provisions of §§ 69-4(A), 69-4(G), 69-7(B), or 69-7(D), or has control of the property and permits such offense to exist shall upon conviction be guilty of an offense, punishable by a fine or penalty of not less than $250 nor more than $5,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding 15 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment upon a conviction of a first offense; upon a conviction of a second offense, within a period of five years of the first conviction, a fine of not less than $1,000 nor more than $10,000, or by imprisonment not exceeding 15 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and upon conviction of a third or subsequent offense, within a period of five years of the first and second conviction, a fine of not less than $1,500 nor more than $15,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Notwithstanding any other provision of § 69-15 to the contrary, any person or business entity who owns or is in possession and/or control of a building or structure and knowingly permits or allows the building or structure to be occupied or utilized for any purpose without a valid building permit, certificate of permitted use, certificate of occupancy or other necessary town approval having been issued shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in the event an occupant or any person suffers bodily injury or death in connection with such use and/or occupancy and, upon conviction thereof, shall be liable for a fine or penalty of not less than $2,000 and not more than $10,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding 90 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each day or part thereof such violation continues or is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense punishable in like manner. Written notice of a violation is not a prerequisite for the imposition of such fine, penalty and/or punishment.
